adventures await.

Picture a touring holiday that delves a bit deeper.

One that doesn't simply drop by top sights and major cities, but invites you to see a destination through the eyes of the people who know it best: the locals who call it home. Where journeys are made for absorbing never-to-be-forgotten views, not darting from A to B. And each day ends in a hand-picked retreat brimming with local charm.

At Blue-Roads Touring, we've spent over 30 years creating these kinds of small group tours. We know that the best kind of adventure is one that introduces you to local experiences and sights while providing you with the time and space to explore independently.

The key ingredient? Experienced Tour Leaders who can turn an exciting getaway into something truly extraordinary. They'll tell you the stories and secrets behind stately homes as you wander the corridors; show you the perfect position to see the sunset over a city skyline; and point you towards the exact patch of coastline where you can try oysters straight off the boat.

All the while, you can be confident that your Blue-Roads tour is being run responsibly and with sustainable tourism in mind. In fact, our commitment to green practices has earned us a Silver Green Tourism rating.

Guided by the best

Passionate and knowledgeable, our Tour Leaders make your European escape truly special.

Kriszti Imre

What's the most rewarding part of your job?

One of the things I enjoy the most about Blue-Roads is the guests we have from all over the world – and taking those guests on the back roads to tour different countries and showing them the hidden gems of a country that only locals would know about.

Another thing I love is that there is no divide between myself as Tour Leader and the guests at the dinner table. This is not the case on tours run by many bigger tour operators. At Blue-Roads, I always sit with guests and we have a chat, a laugh and continue getting to know each other over a delicious meal.

Micaela Hobbs

What inspired you to become a Tour Leader?

A desire to share my passion for the culture, history and spectacular scenery of the places we visit. What better way to earn a living than by visiting amazing places while giving others the opportunities to fulfil their dreams?

How do you create memorable experiences for your guests?

I endeavour to go above and beyond by paying attention to even the little things and keeping the tours flexible and fun. It is so rewarding to create experiences that connect us emotionally, whether it's from sharing laughter, stories, music, scenery, or meals.

Agnes Bukowiecka

What's the most rewarding part of your job?

Expanding my knowledge and curiosity of the world, as well as being able to see and explore places I probably would never have had the chance to visit – and share them with fellow travellers. Experiencing beauty is most intense when it is shared with others.

Frequently asked questions

Is Blue-Roads for you?

I have some health issues. Will this be a problem?

If you are able to manage your health issue without the need for additional care and special facilities, and it does not present a risk to your fellow passengers, we should be able to accommodate you on a Blue-Roads tour. If you are unsure, please reach out to us to discuss.

How much driving is there on Blue-Roads tours?

We design our tours so that there is as little time as possible on the mini-coach and plenty to see while on board. We travel along the scenic route wherever possible. Inevitably, there are days when travelling between locations may involve motorway driving and more mileage. Generally, driving time will not last more than three or four hours per day.

Hotels

Do the hotels have lifts (elevators)?

Most of the hotels we use do not have lifts. For this reason, we recommend you only join a Blue-Roads tour if you are able to walk upstairs unassisted. We may need you to fill out a self-assessment form if you advise us of any mobility requirements.

What rating of hotel do you use?

We use a 3-star/4-star standard of accommodation ranging from country inns to town centre hotels (and the odd castle!). Rather than subscribing to the official rating, we base our choices on quality, charm and character. The rooms in all accommodation include en-suite bathrooms.

Can DHTour arrange pre- and post-tour accommodation in the cities of arrival and departure?

Yes. You can request us to arrange pre- and post-accommodation. Please note, all tours start at 6pm on Day 1 of your tour. Therefore, you may not require pre-tour accommodation and are welcome to arrive at your leisure. Most tours end in the early evening. We cannot drop you off at the airport, so we suggest you return home the day after your tour finishes to ensure you don't miss your flight due to unforeseen circumstances. Please check with the Customer Service team for more information.

What's included/not included in a Blue-Roads tour?

When you travel with Blue-Roads, the following aspects are included in the overall price:

- Daily breakfasts, alongside some lunches and dinners, as indicated by (B), (L) and (D) in the itineraries
- Entrance fees to sites listed within the itinerary

Some costs, however, are not covered. These include:

- Airfares, unless specified in the listed inclusions
- Transfers, unless specified in the listed inclusions
- Meals not specified in the listed inclusions
- Driver/Tour Leader gratuity (given at your discretion)
- Social drinks
- Items of a personal nature
- Entrance fees not listed in the tour itinerary
- Incidental expenses (such as hotel room service charges) must be settled prior to leaving the accommodation
- Laundry costs
- Shipping charges for the return of purchases made
- Charges for the return of property lost on tour
- Pre- and post-tour accommodation

I'm travelling alone. Can I share a room with another person? Do I have to pay a single supplement?

Unfortunately, we cannot provide shared rooming with another single traveller, however we do offer a very reasonable single supplement rate on all our tours.

Peace of mind

Are the tours always guaranteed to run?

As a general rule, we are able to guarantee our tours when we have a minimum of seven passengers booked. Guaranteed tours are identified in green on our website via individual Dates and Prices pages; your travel agent will also be able to advise you of a tour's ongoing status. If we are required to cancel a tour, you will be advised at least 6 weeks in advance. You will then have a choice of requesting a full refund of the amount paid for the tour or choosing an alternative tour.

Do I need to be vaccinated against COVID-19?

To travel with us in 2024, you are no longer required to have the COVID-19 vaccination. Please be aware, some countries and airlines will have different requirements – it is your responsibility to keep up to date with these before you travel.
